| 1 Holy Spirit! Come in Might!From Thy dwelling-place of lightThy pure beaming radiance give.Come, Thou helper of the poor,Come with treasures which endure,Come, Thou Light of all that live! | 3 Heal our wounds, our strength renewOn our dryness pour Thy dew,Wash our stains of sin away;Bend the stubborn heart and will,Melt the frozen, warm the chill,Guide the steps that go astray. |
| 2 Light immortal! Light divine!Visit Thou these hearts of Thine,And our inmost being fill.If Thou take Thy grace awayNothing pure in us will stay,All our good is turned to ill.              | 4 On Thine own, who evermoreThee confess and Thee adore,In Thy sevenfold gifts descend:Give them comfort when they die;Give them life with Thee on high;Give them joys that never end. Amen.  |

Translated by Edward Caswall, 1814 - 78.
